THE JEALOUS FISHERMAN

On the shores of the Wabash, Thomas Cat was having a days outing trying his luck at fishing. But there are always many old time fishes that know the ropes and can play jokes on the best of fisherman.

Nearby Isaac Dog had a new method that always worked with the wisest fish, he held the bait above the water and when Mr. Fish came up he knocked them cold with a large hammer. It seemed that fisherman Al Falfa that owned the land around did not want any fishing just because his luck was so poor. So Al drives the intruders away. Isaac Dog being a shrewd schemer devised a scheme to dress up in an alligators skin and scare Al away. Al starts a fight with the animal. The dog and cat jump out and climb on Al's wagon load of fish and drive away leaving Al empty handed. Proving that "It's Easier To Make A Fortune Than It Is To Keep It."
